

Cavaliers of the West
01/14/12, Woodland Hills, CA
Judge: Carol Jenkins (Hollambrie)

My sincere thanks to the Board and Committee of the COTW for their kind invitation to judge their show, my first time on the West Coast. Thank you all for making me so welcome. My thanks to all the stewards, especially my ring steward Susan Gonyo who did a great job keeping the ring running smoothly. I would like to thank the exhibitors for showing their lovely cavaliers and the sporting way they accepted my decisions.

Junior Puppy Dog (4)

1. Pinecrest White Lightning (Eubank) This well broken nicely made Blenheim headed a class of lovely youngsters. Full of confidence for 5 1/2 months. Lovely size and type, very pleasing head, his large dark eyes giving a lovely expression. Good neck and shoulders, level topline and correct tailset. Moved really well both ways for one so young. An exciting prospect for the future. 2. Forest Creek Sir Prize (Cline) Most of my comments for the class winner apply to this 5 month old heavier richly marked Blenheim. Sweet head and expression, short compact body with level topline and well set tail. 3. Tassajara Sully Sullenberger (Seidman) 6 month old richly marked Blenheim, not as mature in head but his large dark eyes giving a sweet expression. Well made compact body, moved out well both ways. 4. Charma Laid Back Louie At Carlen (Close) 6 1/2 month old black and Tan who should do nicely when he matures. Very pleasing head with good eyes. Bright tans in all the right places. Nicely made body and happy movement.

Senior Puppy Dog (6)

1. Autumn Hill Ring Of Fire, JW (Parente) This stunning ruby boy caught my eye as soon as he entered the ring, he has great confidence and ring presence. Lovely head with large dark eyes giving a melting expression. Well set ears and arched neck fitting into well laid shoulders. His excellent construction followed through to his level topline and correct tailset. This young man is so well made throughout so no surprise he moved around the ring with such confidence, at one with this owner. I am sure this young ruby boy has a great future, will watch his show career with great interest. Could not deny this lovely puppy Best Puppy Dog, Best Puppy in Show Best Ruby in Show

2. Crizwood Billy Baroo At Torrey Pine (Byroads) Nicely proportioned Tricolour with well marked coat and bright tan markings. Lovely dark eyes and sweet expression. Well made short coupled body with good neck and shoulders. Liked this puppy a lot, he moved so well holding a level topline and correct tailset. Unlucky to come up against the winner of this class. Best Tricolor Dog 3. Robin's Nest HRH Prince Andrew (Prodanovich) 9 month old Black and Tan, another very nice puppy. Pleasing head and expression, ideal size with rich tan in the right places. Good neck and shoulders with straight front. My notes say well made throughout.....nice boy, says it all I think! Good movement both ways 4. Royalmark Aisle Of Innisfree (Tegg/McCoy) Heavier marked Blenheim of rich colour with a very attractive head. Large round dark eyes giving a lovely expression. Short body with level topline with good tailset. Moved well both ways.

Graduate Puppy Dog (7)

1. Chantismere Chandos Of Valentyne (O'Brien) Loved the overall size and shape of this richly heavier marked Blenheim boy. Well proportioned head with such a lovely expression. His head framed by well feathered correctly set ears which he uses to advantage. Good shoulders and front following through to his good rear angulation. Moved so well, a happy boy giving his all. 2. Deltarose Enchanting Teodoro (Fennel/McCoy) Nicely marked Blenheim of good type. Sweet head and expression with lovely dark round eyes. Good reach of neck flowing into well angulated shoulders, short well ribbed body with good rear angulation. Good movement both ways. 3. Ellisana Jupiter (Tyler) Nicely made well broken Blenheim of good type. Small but plenty of substance. Lovely head with large dark eyes giving the correct expression. Good neck and shoulders, well ribbed body. Level topline and good tailset. Moved out well both ways. 4. Mayfield Just Can't Wait To Be King (Lunbeck) Attractive Blenheim with an appealing head framed by lovely long well feathered ears. Good neck and shoulders, short body with good rear angulation. Moved out well showing a nice outline.

Bred By Exhibitor Dog (1)

1. Ch Mimric Monogram, JW (Hodges/Perkins) Heavy marked Blenheim, coat richly coloured. Lovely masculine head with large dark expressive eyes. Very long well feathered ears. Short muzzle and well filled under eyes. Good depth of fore chest, correct length of neck and short coupled with good rear angulation. Well ribbed body, level topline and good tailset. Moved out well both ways with plenty of drive from the rear. Nice exhibit.

Special Limit Tricolour Bitch (4)

1. Sheeba Standing Ovation Of Windnsea, JW (Sutton) This lovely typy well broken tricolour was just what I was looking for, the complete package! She is so feminine with the most gorgeous head and expression. Bright tan markings in all the right places. Reachy neck fitting nicely into well laid shoulders. Short compact body with just the right amount of bone. Good turn of stifle, she moved soundly keeping a lovely profile at all times. Beautifully presented. A quality exhibit viewed from any angle. Winners Bitch, Reserve Best in Show, Best of Opposite Sex, Best Tricolour in Show, Best American Bred in Show

2. Pinecrest Dixie Melody (Eubank) Very close decision between 1 and 2, so many of my comments apply. Such a pretty girl with large dark expressive eyes. Well constructed short body, well ribbed with a spirit level topline and just the right amount of bone for her size. Lovely in profile, she flowed around the ring with correct tail set. 3. Blackfire Shows Class (Weidig/Kennedy) Another nice tricolour, I was spoilt for choice in this class. Most attractive head with large dark eyes giving a soft expression. Well broken with bright tans in the right places. Good front, neck and shoulders following through to her level topline and well angulated rear. Moved out well with style. 4. Hathersage Irish Rose (Fowler/Gonyo) Small heavier marked tricolour with a lovely head framed by long full ears. Her lovely dark eyes giving a soft expression. Rich tan markings, excellent pigment. Short well made body, she moved out well with level top line and correct tail set.

Special Limit Ruby Bitch (1)

1. Robin's Nest Torch Song (Prodanovich/Gallant) Attractive ruby standing alone in this class. Soft gentle expression, large dark eyes. Good reach of neck and soundly made body. Moved out well when she settled. Best Ruby Bitch

Open Bitch (2)

1. Ch Rosscrea Summertime (Flowers Foster/Mohn) This quality Blenheim is so feminine with the most attractive head framed by long full ears. Dark eyes and black nose pigment. Good neck tapering into well placed shoulders. Compact body with just the right amount of bone. Good angulation, driving from the rear she made free easy work of moving round the ring. A lovely exhibit viewed from any angle. Reserve Winners Bitch, Best Blenheim Bitch

2. Blackfire Trifecta (Weidig/Kennedy) This nicely broken tricolour has a most appealing head and expression. Well cushioned foreface and large dark eyes. Good front, neck and shoulders, compact well ribbed body. She is well made throughout which was reflected in her good movement.

Veteran Bitch (1)

1. Joylynn Nike (Gallo) Hardly a dry eye in the room (myself included) when this wonderful 16 year old entered the ring. At a time when our lovely breed is receiving much criticism in the press regarding health, how wonderful to see this amazing old lady. She is nicely marked with a sweet head and large sparkling eyes. She is still in such good condition, moving round the ring like a youngster. It was my pleasure to award her a first prize, she did a lap of honour to a standing ovation. What a wonderful way to end a most enjoyable day. Best Veteran in Show
