

CKCSC Members Show
10/08/11, San Jose, CA
Judge: Robbi Jones (Rutherford)

What a lovely show in a beautiful location! As many of you know, Northern California has been my home a couple of times, and it and Cavaliers of the West hold special places in my heart. I want to thank all the show committee who helped to put it all together and to make me feel so welcome. Thank you to Teresa Murphy and Kathy Tegg for handling all of my arrangements and providing a camera, to Beth Bales for answering questions and being on top of everything, to Mary Grace Eubank for being my fabulous ring steward, to Susan Gonyo for gate stewarding, to Barbara Garnett Wilson for table stewarding, to Joan Twigg for announcing and marking my book, and to my friend Tunstall Lang for taking photos. My gifts of a large, hand-painted oval platter, note cards, and chocolates were beautiful and thoughtful. Thank you, COTW for hosting the National Specialty! In addition, I especially want to thank all the exhibitors who honored me by entering their dogs and who accepted my decisions with such sportsmanship. I had some lovely dogs to judge! The majority were presented in excellent condition and exhibited typical happy Cavalier behavior. There were many quality exhibits, so in some cases I was spoiled for choices. My puppy and adult winners were beautiful examples of the breed. We still need work on front angulation and toplines, and as always, mouths. There were a few exhibits whose heads were very extreme with wide spaced eyes, and in profile looked more Charlie-like, with very short muzzles, lack of chin, and a throaty appearance. These types of heads are not what is typical of a Cavalier, and I hope this won't proliferate in our breed. I was pleased to see fewer gay tails than in the past!

Junior Puppy Dog (3)

1. Autumn Hill Ring of Fire (Parente) 7-month-old Ruby. A richly colored baby with good conformation and ear set. Dark pigment. Moved well front and rear with a level tail set. I would prefer him to be a trifle shorter in body and a softer expression. 2. Wandris Believe it or Not (Gentil) 5-month old Blenheim. Another precious baby boy just 5 months. More immature than the one ahead of him and less sure on the move. Pretty head just needing maturity. Lovely color. Stifles a bit longer than I prefer, and topline a little roached at the moment which should level out as he matures. 3. Robin's Nest Prince Andrew (Prodanovich) A 6-month old B/T baby. Pleasing head and expression and dark pigment. Up on leg with a more compact body than the first two. Topline was off. Moved close in the rear and was side winding.

Senior Puppy Dog (5)

1. Liliium Autumm Flight of Fancy (Almeida/Adkins) 11-month-old Tri. Lovely, heavily marked Tri with big dark eyes in a pleasing head. Cobby body. Silky coat with tan in all the right places. Beautiful make and shape and size. Well angulated front and rear. I was pleased to award him Best Puppy Dog. 2. Ellisana Jupiter (Tyler) 10-month-old Blenheim. Very nicely put together Blenheim. Less mature than #1. Pretty head and expression. Moved well front and rear. Coat a little fly away right now. 3. Hathersage Intoxication, JW (Fowler) 8-month-old Blenheim. A little larger than the first two and unfortunately left his coat at home today. Pleasing head and expression. Lovely outline. Needs to fill out in the chest. 4. Windnsea Make My Day (Sutton) 11-month-old Blenheim. A larger boy that is longer cast than those before him. Angles not as good. Head needs to mature.

Graduate Puppy Dog (6) Nice class; different types and sizes.

1. Dancasa Cute As A Button, JW (Tiedemann) 15-month-old Blenheim. Lovely head and expression with large dark eyes. Small size. Well balanced cobby boy with good coat. Good angles front and rear. Moved well. 2. Maibee Agent Cody of Bentwood (Harrison) 15-month-old Blenheim. Larger and more substantial than the others in his class. Longer in body. Beautiful rich chestnut and long flowing coat. Lovely head with large, dark eyes. Very mature for his age. Was moving off in the rear today—sometimes close and sometimes wide. 3. Quail Garden Lochlmond Déjà vu (Mittelman) 15-month-old Blenheim. Well put together dog with a flowing silky coat. Large dark eyes in a pleasing head. Full of himself! His movement was not as true as the ones before him. 4. Dallarock Dubonnet (Shin) 14-month-old Blenheim. A richly colored boy with nice coat. Pleasing head and expression. Needs more angulation. Movement could be better.

Bred By Exhibitor Dog (3) Numbers 1 and 2 are very similar in their presentation, size, and coat.

1. Ch Forestcreek Dream On (Cline) 3-year-old Blenheim. Richly colored boy with beautiful coat and dark, expressive eyes. Preferred the head and length of body of this exhibit. Moved well front, rear, and in profile. 2. Ch Beckwith Theres Only One (Smith) 3.5-year-old Blenheim. Beautiful dark eyes and lovely markings and coat.

Moved around the ring with style. A worthy champion. Would prefer more cushioning and a shorter body. 3. Canterbury Long Shot (Newbury/Gibbs) 20-month-old Blenheim. Another with lovely dark eyes. Longer cast than those before him. Movement not as true.

Junior American Bred Dog (3)

1. Canyoncrest Star Blazer, JW (Du Ross) 14-month-old Blenheim. Beautiful expressive eyes. Cobby body. Moved true front and rear. Nice coat. 2. Lilium Quince at Crownrose (Rosenberg) 16-month-old Blenheim. Richly colored boy, longer in loin than the one above. Nice coat and beautiful color. Rise over his loin at the moment, which straightens out sometimes when he is standing. 3. Denham Dynamite Joe (Maddox) 11-month-old Blenheim. Larger cast dog, longer in body. Beautiful coat with good color. Preferred the expression on the two above him.

American Bred Dog (8) 1. Quail Garden Tad O Magic (Barrett/Mittelman/Subramanian/Geller) 2.5-year-old Blenheim. Beautiful head and expression with large dark eyes. Cobby body. Silky coat. Dark chestnut. Heavily marked. Longer cast than #1 and movement not as true. 3. Benchmark up In The Air (Chan/Mitchell) 2-year-old Blenheim. Similar to number 2. Pretty head and expression. Shorter muzzle. Mouth level. 4. Cloudbase Oh So Handsome (Davis/Johnson) 2.25-year-old Blenheim. Longer cast boy. Dark eyes, which could be bigger. Could also use more cushioning.

Second Generation American Bred Dog (1) 1. Covington True Blood (Mohn) 19-month-old Blenheim. Gorgeous dog with beautiful head and large dark, expressive eyes. Long neck with lovely shoulders. Good angulation front and rear with plenty of drive. Short coupled, which will be more apparent when his coat is complete. Well broken with Blenheim spot. Moved around the ring beautifully. Young man with plenty of pizzazz! I was pleased to award him Reserve Winners Dog, Reserve Best in Show, Best Blenheim in Show.

Moved well all directions. Good tail set. I was pleased to award him an Award of Merit. 2. Pascavale Nathan (Cline/Sedgwick) 21-month-old Blenheim. Another boy with lovely head and large dark eyes. Beautiful rich coat and shown to perfection. Neck appeared stuffy because of insufficient shoulder layback. 3. Pascavale Smarty (Ayers/Cline) 3-year-old Blenheim. Lovely coat on this exhibit, a dark red. His head was a bit extreme for my taste. I would prefer better front assembly. Today, he was toeing in in the front and close in the rear. 4. Clopsville Durango (Warner) 2-year-old Blenheim. A very short muzzle. Dark eyes. Ear coat not as lengthy. Longer cast. Minced when moving.

Special Limit Tricolor Dog (3)

Head and expression not as pleasing as those above. Eyes could be bigger. Needs to gain weight! His movement was a bit wobbly today.

I was pleased to award him Winners Dog, Best in Show, Best American Bred, Best Ruby in Show.

2. Little Knight Truffle (Tyler) 4-year-old Ruby. Similar in make and shape to #1. A little smaller and cobbier. Pleasing expression. Not as much coat or richness in color as #1. 3.
