

CAVALIERS OF THE SOUTH

03/17/2018, WILLIAMSBURG, VA

JAN GALLAGHER, STOREYLAND CAVALIERS, USA

What a wonderful array of entries! My sincere thanks to the Cavaliers of The South for their kind invitation to judge this show. I want to say a special "thank you" to Helen Norton, Show Chair, for her attention to meticulous detail. It was a well-organized and successful show.

It was exciting to see such a large number of quality exhibits. I believe that American breeders are producing healthy, stunning dogs that are truly representative of the breed standard. My congratulations to those breeders recognized in the top awards and class placements

It was also a pleasure to note that the dogs who are put together well, with proper coats, do not need excessive grooming and sculpting to look good. Thus, I congratulate the exhibitors whose dogs were in clean coat, free of mats and lovingly presented. I want to thank the exhibitors for entering and showing and I hope my critique will be helpful to you. I would like to think that I am not a "fault judge". There is no perfect dog. That being said, I prefer to concentrate on the strengths and attributes of each exhibit.

Most exhibits had lovely heads and beautiful dark eyes. Stunning Cavalier faces are difficult to deny. I still believe, that as breeders, there is some work to be done in improving body structure. Bone was good, but top-lines were sometimes soft and some tail sets were a bit low. However, all in all, the entries were very much within our breed standard.

Blenheim with good bone and a lovely body. Well put together with good reach and drive. Well broken, richly colored coat.

BRED BY EXHIBITOR DOG (5)

1. SHIRMONT CADDO BALLIOL, JW (Henry/Henry/Rosenberg/Rosenberg)
This dog is an excellent example of breed type. Strong fluid movement, because he is put together well. A pretty head with lovely expression and big, dark eyes.
2. RANLYN DIAMONDS ARE FOREVER (Bragg)
Another lovely exhibit with an excellent topline and proper tail set. Soft, melting expression and plenty of attitude.
3. CH TUDORR RHYTHM N BLUES, JW (P. Mixon)
A slightly smaller exhibit. A pleasure to watch his movement, plenty of reach and drive. Very attentive, which gave him a lovely, expressive face framed by his alert ears.
4. CH CHADWICK TELLTALE AUTHOR, JW (Eckersley)
Slightly larger Blenheim in good, well-conditioned coat. Plenty to like about this boy with good angulation and strong movement. A handsome face with big, dark eyes and an appealing expression.

1. KEAN CHRISTIAN AT SHIRMONT, JW (Henry/Henry/Keane)
WOW! This dog took my breath away when he entered the ring because he owned it! He is outstanding in breed type with a stunning head and face. He has such reach and drive that he flows easily around the ring. His crest of neck helps to give him an elegant appearance.
