Judge: Rob Sansom (Byermoor)

I would like to thank COS for the chance to judge at their championship show and the hospitality that was given to me. A quality entry awaited me and I was more than happy with my winners.

Junior Puppy Dog (10)

1. Chantismere Caruso of Chadwick (Eckersley) Lovely blenheim of very good size and balance, pleasing in head and eye, excellent neck and front. He still needs to settle in topline as most youngsters do! He scored well in body development and bone, out and back was very sound, put down in very good coat and condition, sure he has a good future. Best Puppy Dog, Best Puppy in Show
2. Redbud Northern Dance (Scott) Blenheim of lovely type, loved his head and eyes, very good neck and topline with tidy quarters, in very good coat and rich colour, he has good bone but still needs to body up and needs to firm up on the move but has the promise to go on well. 3. Marshelle Fallen Angel (Stout) Another lovely Blenheim of good size and balance, very attractive head and eye, good neck and front, short and tidy quarters, moved well. 4. Circlecity Walk In the Park (Matters) Blenheim of pleasing size, good bone and body, liked his eyes, good in neck and front, moved out well.

Senior Puppy Dog (1)

1. Krystle Coleman (Torgersen) Well broken Blenheim of nice size, needs to come on in head but pleasing eyes, scores in neck and front, topline needs to settle, moved out and back well.

Graduate Puppy Dog (4)

1. Canyoncrest Star Blazer (Duross) Nice sized Blenheim with a lovely head and eyes, excellent neck and front, firm in topline and sound in quarters and moved very well, he had a quality well broken coat. 2. Marshelle Designer Genes (Stout) Another nice Blenheim of very good size, liked him in topline and quarters, he moved very well, not the head of 1. 3. Brookhaven Jessie (Ayers/Martz) Very attractive Blenheim of good size, liked him in head and eye, firm in topline and good tailset, in nice coat, needs to firm up in movement. 4. Seneca Manor Native Dancer (Gerkin) Nice sized Blenheim with good balance, liked his bone and body, in good quality coat, needs to finish in head.

Bred By Exhibitor Dog (3)

1. Sheeba Espresso (Ostmann) Quality Blenheim, loved him from his first walk into the ring! Classic head with lovely eyes, so good in neck and front, firm bone and good feet. Perfect topline with well developed ribs and tail set was bang on, firm and tidy quarters that drove him round off strong short hocks. In a quality coat that was in pristine condition he looked the part! Movement was spot on and as true as it comes and I thought him a great ambassador of the breed. Winners Dog, Best in Show, Best American Bred in Show, Best Bred By Exhibitor in Show, Best Blenheim in Show
2. Ch Nightingale Heat Wave, JW (Mulligan) Blenheim of good size and quality, pretty head with good eyes, scored in neck and front, tidy topline and quarters, in good coat and condition and was going well. 3. Storeyland Golden Ransom (Gallagher) Ruby of very good colour, lovely head and eyes, neck and topline good, strong bone and body, in good coat. I would like better quarters.
