

CKCSC, USA National Specialty Show
10/12/13, Atlanta, GA
Judge: Joakim Ohlsson

First of all I would like to say thank you to Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club USA for the honour to be invited to judge your 2013 National in Atlanta. It was 7-8 years ago since I last time judged in Atlanta, and the hospitality and well organized show is really a trademark for this place. Thank you to all exhibitors for bringing such a nice entry of high quality dogs. The overall quality was excellent and in several classes I really got goose bumps when I saw the dogs. And also had to split hair when I had to make my final decisions for winners in the classes. You should be very proud of your Cavaliers and with that quality the future really looks bright for the breed in America. Finally a big thank you to the committee for the excellent work they have done to make everything run smoothly, my help in the ring during the day, and my hardworking ring steward David Moger. Hope to see you all again in the future.
