

CKCSC, USA Code of Personal Conduct

effective 1/28/25

CKCSC, USA members strive to set a good example of sportsmanship and character in all actions. The purpose of the Code of Personal Conduct is to provide members with a framework of conduct for actions at shows, hotels, and club sponsored events. It also covers communications like phone calls, texts, emails, and social media.

As a Member of the CKCSC, USA, I pledge the following:

- To be kind, respectful, helpful, and considerate of the feelings of others.
- I will not damage the reputation of people or their dogs in person or in any media format.
- I will not use abusive language or make derogatory remarks.
- I will not defame, slander or libel others.
- I will not engage or tolerate bullying in any form.
- I understand that constructive communication is the key to a healthy environment.
- If an issue does arise, I promise to respectfully address any misunderstandings directly with the person or an appropriate representative.
- If I make a mistake, I will own it and simply reply with a sincere apology.
